

AEF Grosses Quernet 141 Compiled for Amedeus de Sabaudia by Johannes Balay, 1403.

Abstracts prepared by John W. McCoy (RealMac@aol.com) © 2025.

This is the “D” volume from the four volume set of terriers for the noble fiefs of the Pays de Vaud compiled by Johannes Balay and his deputies for Amedeus de Sabaudia in 1403. The information here is derived from images of the volume index, as well as the summary contents of this volume in ACV Ab 3 and the analysis of Philippe Champoud, “Les droits seigneuriaux dans le Pays de Vaud, d’après les reconnaissances reçues par Jean Balay de 1403 à 1409”, Bibliothèque historique vaudoise 36, 1963. (Champoud gives the dates and distinguishes between recto and verso in the folio numbers.)

The repertorium at the beginning of the volume is problematic. On the recto, items from fols. 1 through 140 are noted, a few obscured by stains. On the verso, the repertorium appears to continue with fols 158-199, but this page is lined out, and a few items are obscured by folds. The analysis in Ab 3 extends only to fol. 140, suggesting that the additional items in the repertorium might have been separated from the “D” volume at an early date. However, the additional items are in fact noted in Champoud’s analysis, so they must have been added back before the volume found its way to Fribourg. Exactly what happened might be elucidated when images of the rest of the volume are available.

Ab 3, fol. 197v, describes this volumes as Quarto Libro Nobilium Vaudi, Recognitiones existentes in lybro quarto nobilium Vaudi, coperto pelle quasi viridi in pergamineo.

The analysis here, up to fol. 140, starts with the summary of the contents listed in Ab 3, with the addition of the folio numbers from the repertorium of AEF Grosses Quernet 141.

(This is apparently the entry that Champoud places at fol. 124, possibly in error, with date 10 dec 1407, likely the correct year. There are thus three versions of this entry: (1) The version in Ab 3, here at fol. 132, for Janna de Blonay; (2) The entry from the repertorium of AEF Grosses Quernet 141, above, at fol. 124 for Janna only; (3) the citation in Champoud, fol. 124, apparently for Janna as well as Johannes de Blonay. This discrepancy will have to wait until images of the entire volume are available.)
