Copy registers for the Inventaire Blanc (IB), district of Payerne, selected items (focusing on transactions involving individuals or “particuliers”).

In most of the “reconnaissances”, there are several additional persons named as adjacent land owners – these are sometimes helpful in establishing dates (of birth, because owners should normally have reached the age of majority, or of death, by noting the earliest date at which their heirs own property). No. 596 is exceptionally rich in names, because of the very large number of properties and the fact that many of them were subleased to others. Many of the people named in these transactions are mentioned also in the terriers ACV Fm 51, 52, and 53 with dates ranging from about 1437 to 1500. Comparison with these terriers should resolve some of the names and relationships.

In most cases, the present location of the original reconnaissances is unknown. Layettes 13-21 of the Inventaire Blanc were long ago noted as missing, implying that Nos. 1-1235 no longer exist in their original form. However, some of the documents from these Layettes were noted in the “Nouveaux Titres” series, which has since been dispersed into various rubrics of series C (Parchemins et papiers), but much of C does not have an item-level inventory with cross references to the Nouveaux Titres numbers or to the Inventaire Blanc numbers. The most likely explanation is that the missing Layettes were systematically emptied into series C, but without leaving a record of how they were classified. In the series of reconnaissances below, a few have been matched with the original documents now in C VII b, the section devoted to the Abbey of Payerne.

There are several references in the copy registers to “Cors” or “Cor” that appear to be misreading of “Tors”, an older version of the name of the hamlet of Tours, now a tiny enclave belonging to the Canton of Fribourg, but entirely surrounded by the commune of Corcelles-près-Payerne in the Canton of Vaud. The copy registers seemed confused by this name, rendering it Cors about half the time and Tors the other half, even for the same property or the same families. In the original script, the distinction between C and T can be difficult, in the absence of a clear context. We transcribed all such references as Tors.

The copy registers present an additional problem. Without the original documents, we are unable to assess the accuracy of the transcription process, which was done by unknown hands in the 1750’s. However, internal clues can sometimes be found. For example, we find Huguetus “Grangie” mentioned in nos. 490 and 605. The same person is also called Huguetus Gingie in no. 605. Comparison of the other people mentioned – his widow Johanneta and his daughter Mermeta, wife of Jaquetus Gavaret – make it clear that he is the same person as Huguetus “Gugie” in no. 527. The shorter names Gingie and Gugie probably resulted from a failure to recognize typical shorthand forms, in which a syllable containing g and r (gar, gra, ger, gre, etc.) would be represented by a g ending with an upward hook, as well as the fact that u and n are generally indistinguishable in the script of the period.

For those few reconnaissances where we have found the originals in C VII b, we can compare the texts directly. For No. 1267, the comparison was instructive. While most of the copy was faithful to the original, occasional words were missed, some apparent corrections of Latin word endings were made, and two entire lines were missed by carelessness (but without altering the nature or content of the transaction). More perplexing, the date in the original is clearly written in words, indicating 12 jul 1513, while the version in the copy register says 12 jul 1450! The clerk must have been seriously distracted to make such an error! For the other cases where we have both the original and the copy, no significant discrepancies have been noted.

The individual reconnaissances in the copy registers are in no particular order. The ones that have been examined are rearranged below in chronological order to facilitate the genealogical analysis. As more reconnaissances are analyzed, they will be added here.

Copies Nos. 1264-1267, 1273, from Aa 12/5, various items described in the Inventaire.

Aa 12/6 and Aa 12/7 are “Suppléments” to the main copy registers Aa 12/1-5. The “Supplément” volumes contain transcripts of documents pertaining to “particuliers” that are not mentioned either in the IB or the main copy registers, numbered sequentially in a separate series of 283 items. This series is included below, identified with the prefix S. Thus, No. S23 is the 23rd item from the Supplément volumes. Nos. S1-S126 are in Aa 12/6, Nos. S127-S283 are in Aa 12/7 (there is no No. S197 in this series). It is not yet known whether the originals of any of these items found their way into any part of the collections of the ACV. About 100 of the 282 items in the Supplément volumes appear to be duplicates of items from Aa 12/1-5.

Additional sources:

AEF section for Payerne is described in detail in the on-line catalogue. There are several documents that concern “particuliers”.

Additional terriers are in the ACV Fm series and also apparently in the municipal archives of Payerne.

The records of the early notaries of Payerne are being systematically extracted.

The terriers in the collection of the AEF, as well as the registers of the notaries in the same collection, need to be examined in detail. There does not seem to be a detailed inventory of these sources.

(Philippe Mottu, Les de Trey bourgeois de Payerne, Editions Cabdita, 1988, p. 31, reports the case of a Jean de Trey, whose estate was seized around 1362 because he had committed a homicide. This Jean de Trey, no. 14 in the de Trey genealogy, was the son of Jaquet, in turn son of Nicod, no. 7 in the de Trey genealogy, who was apparently the Nicod whose execution for murder is noted in this reconnaissance. This event is not reported in the de Trey genealogy, not a surprising omission, since it is mentioned only in passing in the text. Is it true that both grandfather and grandson had committed murder? There is no other Nicod of the right generation in the de Trey genealogy, and the Nicod in question was clearly a prominent person.)

→ Original document is now identified as C VII b 2454! However, the date of the first part is clearly 12 jul 1513. The second part is word-for-word identical to No. 1267. In the first section, in Latin, the original uses Glaudius, this is rendered Claudius in No. 1267. There are minor differences, and what appear to be incorrect word endings are corrected in No. 1267. There are a number of careless errors in the copy, notably the omission of two entire lines. On the back of C VII b 2454 there are numerous numbers and annotations from various periods, but there is a faint notation in one corner, No. 1267.

Nous avons de pres examiné les lettres de concession de nos predecesseurs, et tout ce que nous a esté representé de votre part, ensemble la treshumble requeste et priere tendante, qu'il nous pleu laisser exercer la Justice et Pratique d'icelle par notre Advoyer en notre nom et les Justiciers etablis en la ditte ville et tout son ressort comme du passé, et ne permettre qu'une autre justice soit etablie et exercée dans la ville par nos Schaffners pour eviter divisions et autres inconveniens qui en pourroient reussier, commil nous auroit et a nos predecesseurs esté autrefois plus au long representé par vos ancestres, estant mené cette meme question en l'an 1540 et sur ce vous donné telle concession que vous entendez avoir esté dechargé par le contenu d'icelle de cette Justice de l'Abbaye, ne pouvant estre reintroduite sans le prejudice de vos dittes concessions et franchises à diverses fois ratifiées par nous et nos predecesseurs, priant sur ce tres instamment d'estre genignement laissés aupres d'icelles ; et d'autre part ayants veu repeté et bien espluché tous nos droits authentiques fiaissants pour ce sujet et autres droits de notre ditte ville et Abbaye, avons tres evidemment trouvés estre bien fondés de pouvoir avec toute justice et raison ordonner une Justice en Notre Abbaye sans toucher à celle de la ville, ny nos concessions et franchises aupres desquelles nous somme bien intentionnés de vous laisser et maintenir, se trouvant le Circuit et Ressort de notre maison Abbatiale par droit et pieces authentiques clairement separé et discerné de celluy de notre ditte ville, mais come estant l'un et l'autre en notre puissance d'en disposer selon notre pouvoir et nos bons droits et considéré qu'un Advoyer represente notre autorité dans notre ditte ville et ressort, nous vous declarons et faisons sçavoir par ces presentes, que de consideration particuliere et à votre treshumble requeste et instante priere, nous acquiessons bienignement à icelle pour cette fois en manière que notre Advoyer continuera à exercer la Justice dans notre ditte ville comme du passé, sans que point d'autre soit establee en notre Abbaye pour le present, nous reservant toutes fois en cela notre pouvoir et puissance au contenu de nos bons droits sous aussy assurance et creance que nos Schaffners auront meilleure et tell assistance et ayde de vous en general et particulièrement de vous, notre Advoyer, qu'ils puissent avoir bonne et brieve justice raison et satisfaction pour ce que leur sera deu en censes, diesmes, dampes et autres revenus droits et emolument à cause de notre Abbaye et dependance ; que les officiers de la ville soyent rieux commandés et tenus à executer ce à quoy ils sont obligés par leur devoir, surtout les jugements de saisie et emprisonnement sans exception et egard de personne. Item, que nos Schaffners soyent paisiblement laissés et maintenus aupres tous autres droits privileges prehemines et dampes emoluments et exercise de justice soit en fait d'Appellation que sur les trois villages non en question et particulièrement pour le regard du Constistoire du Bois de Boulex et autres semblables droitures de notre maison Abbatiale que nous voulons, qu'ils demeurent en forme et vigueur, et en somme, que nos Schaffners soient tellement traités que point de sujet leur soit donné de juste plainte et mecontentement, et moins à nous occasion de moindre ressentiment et desdain, ains plutôt nous donner toute sorte de contentement et matiere à vous continuer faveur bienveillance et graces ainsy que nous nous promettons de vous et vous asseurons de notre bonne volonté en votre endroit.
