103 Testament of Anne Marie Machard en son vivant femme d'André Granjon de Longirod, 02 mar 1716 (Eg. Barret). She died one month ago today, 12 may 1716. Residual heirs her daughters Danielle and Susanne Granger. Probated 12 may 1716. The proceedings give a partial explanation: Jaques, Salomon, and Jean Granger, demeurants à Esin were brothers-in-law of the deceased. Daniel Granger, demeurant aussy audit Esin, is guardian of Danielle and Susanne Machard, daughters of the said deceased, and Jean Pierre Maîntonnet of Burssin and Discret Moyse Baupan of Loin are her cousins. Danielle Maîntonnet is now wife of Claudy Burnet of Burtigny. The deceased had been the wife of "feu ledit Granger", but his name is not actually given. It appears that Danielle and Susanne should not have been called Machard, but rather

Granger (as cited in the testament). Is Danielle “Maîntonnet” the same person as Danielle Granger/Machard?
