

ACV Dp 67 Roletus de Montagniaco (Rolet de Montagny), notary at Payerne, 1430-1450.

Abstracts prepared by John W. McCoy (RealMac@aol.com) © 2013.

The surviving register consists of about 291 folios, the first few and the last badly damaged. The folio numbers become very faint and then completely invisible at fol. 266. Folios 267 to 283 are numbered in a much later hand, in pencil. Fol. 284 is badly damaged and unnumbered. After the first set of folios 91-100, there is a second set with the same numbers, then a third folio 100.

Fol. 1 (only about ¼ of the page remains, there is a mark at the top that is probably the Roman numeral I):

Johannes filius... quondam Othon...

Prefatus Johannes...

[Fol. 5v:]

Small fragments of text relating to the previous item, mention of partage, but not enough text to establish the name of the family involved, no date.

Fol. 6:

end of the previous act, evidently a partage, but the names of the parties not stated in this section, 27 may 1430. Followed by the notation of another notary, “levata est prescripta lictera partagii ad opus Johannis Aubry per me Claudium de Bret. (on fol. 8, this is written in full, Bretoneria) commissum.”

Johannes dictus de la Grangit filius quondam Roleti dicti de la Grangit has received from Francesia filia Mermeti de Ch...? de Dompnopetro uxor sua, dowry, 14 livres, assignal, 28 may 1430.

Fol. 6v :

Petrus de Disy de Dondidier sells with approval of his brothers Johannes and Glaudius, to Dominus Nycodus Gayet curatus parrochie ecclesie de Chandon (with others, procuratores for the said church), 29 may 1430, with other provisions.

Fol. 7:

Aymonetus de Laryat de Lescheres sells to Petrus de Laryat, Jordano Chappuis, et Petrus Reboctel de Chandon, 19 jun 1430, with other provisions.

Janinus dictus de la Porta residens Staviaci affirmavit se et affirmat cum Francisco Soneveis (this is Schöneveis, of Fribourg, there are similar mentions of this family in the registers of Petrus de Trevaul, ACV Dp 108) domicello castellano Montagniaci, appears to involve salary in arrears for the past year, 8 livres, 10 jul 1430.

(See <http://www.diesbach.com/sghcf/s/schoenfels.html> for an account of the astonishing transformations of the family name Schöneveis, originally de la Roche, and source of the seigneurie of Beller Roche that is associated with the von Diesbach family. Franciscus Schöneveis was the Châtelain of the seigneurie of Montagny. From the context, it appears that Janinus de la Porta must have been his representative at Estavayer. The annual salary of 8 livres seems far too large for an ordinary laborer; rather, Janinus must have held an administrative function of some importance.)
