In effect, a reconnaissance or quernet for these fiefs. The inventory of the ACV indicates some sections of the reconnaissance are found in Fn 86 and Fn 218. There are three separate sections. So far, the source of the date seems to be a notation on one of the labels on the spine of the volume "Signé par vidimus par Mr. le Commissaire General Zerkinden, anno 1551", and on the title page, "Livre i^{er} Moudon, extrait des extentes stipulées en faveur de L.E. cause ayants du Sr. de Lullin Sr. de Vulliens par Egrege Collon commissaire..."

Fn 86 is a terrier for the seigneurie of Vulliens, compiled by François Collon, not signed, "du bien et revenu de la seigneurie et juridicion de Vulliens appartenant à mes Tresredoubtés et Souverains Seigneurs de Berne en vigueur de la juste conquête du Pays de Vaud et dependences d'iceluy", circa 1548. There is a section for Chavannes, fols. 142v-156v, containing what appear to be the complete reconnaissances corresponding to the section summarized below, but nevertheless not signed. Fn 218 concerns the former priory of Montpreveyres, not relevant to the properties at Chavannes. The previous reconnaissances, for Noble Aymon de Genève, might be those in Fn 65 and Fn 68, but the commissaires noted in the inventory of the ACV are Ludovicus Challet and Jacobus Gaudini, not Johannes Luysii as indicated in Fn 86.

FamilySearch images 1263-1292 are the repertoires for the 3 sections.

"A" section: The "A" section begins with a short "endomayne".

Chavannes, fols. 300-326, also a few possible items that might relate to properties or families from Chavannes in sections for Moudon (images 603 ff.).
