This terrier has been digitized on www.familysearch.org: Image Group 101669514

The first 38 folios have been lost, and fols. 39-41 have been torn out, leaving only a few words at the inner edges of those pages. The intact text begins in the middle of a long reconnaissance on fol. 42. The rest of the volume appears largely intact, with clear script, concerning mainly Allaman, but the last surviving reconnaissance is incomplete, all material after fol. 454v having been lost. However, the inventory of the ACV indicates that the missing folios at the end were fols. 455-458v, possibly indicating that the remnants of four folios are still present.

42 Continuation of a reconnaissance, evidently concerning property of the Juens family of Allaman, for which Johannes de Cresto alias Choudet appears to be acting as guardian for Aymo his son, no date, with signature and paraphe of Ludovicus Challeti.

47 Johannes filius quondam Glaudii Collon de Alamand, 12 oct 1525 Style of the Nativity, previously recognized by the said Gladius in a terrier compiled by Guilliermus Berardi de Romanomonasterio for Noble Gladius de Menthone grandfather of the current condominium Albone and Alamand.

55v Aymo filius quondam Stephani de Nemore de Alamand, 17 oct 1525 Style of the Nativity, previously recognized (Berardi) by his father.

62 Aymo filius quondam Johannis Bergiers (Bergerii) alias d'Orbaz generis Petri Burgonion de Alamand, necnon Cristophori filii pupilli Johannis filii predicti Johannis Bergiers ipsiusque Aymonis nepotis, per eiusdem Aymonem facta ut infra, 02 nov 1526 Style of the Nativity, but the text describes the parties differently: Aymo Bergerii filius quondam Johannis Bergerii alias d'Orbaz generis Petri Borgonion de Alamand agens in hac parte nomine suo necnon Cristophori filii quondam Johannis filii predicti Johannis Bergiers predicti Petri Borgonion generis eiusdem Aymonis nepotis absentis et in pupillari et minoris etate existentis. A possible solution would be if Aymo and his brother Johannes (sons of the elder Johannes Bergier) had both married daughters of Petrus Borgonion. Previously recognized (Berardi) by the elder Johannes Bergerii. Followed by text of abergement by Nobilis Gladius de Menthone dominus Ruppisfortis et condominium Albone, the tenement of Anthonius Andree and his wife Jaqueta filia quondam Johannodi de laz Planta de Alamand having become vacant, it is now leased to Johannes Bergier alias d'Orbaz morans apud Alamand, recorded by Guilliermus Berardi, 17 dec 1489.

85v Stephanus filius quondam Berthodi Cusini de Alamand, 02 nov 1526, previously recognized by his father (Berardi).

95 Supranominatus Stephanus Cusini de Alamand, 02 nov 1526, previously recognized by Jacobus Margel de Authiez morans in dico loco (Berardi). Followed by text of abergement by Johannes de Menthone to the said Stephanus, recorded by Ludovicus Challeti, 02 nov 1526. Thus, this item includes both the lease and the corresponding reconnaissance made on the same day. However, the final page (fol. 108) has been torn out.

This reconnaissance was recorded by the notary Roletus Canelli (=Canel) de Sancto Jorio in the diocese of Geneva, resident of Nyon (thus avoiding any conflict of interest), and bears his subscription and large paraphe. Fols. 430-430v are noted as missing, and this is likely not a numbering error, as the expected heading “Confitens” is not found; it should have occurred between the “Items” leading up to fol. 429v and the heading “Promictens” on fol. 431.

433v Anthonia uxor mis Ludovici Challeti commissarii infra nominati, 23 sep 1534, identified in the text as Anthonia filia Egregii Michaelis Quisardi burgensis Nyviduni quondam procuratoris fiscalis et commissarii generalis patrie Vuaudi – thus, Ludovicus Challeti married the daughter of his predecessor in this position, a very popular career move in that era –, previously recognized by Johannes Bergier (Berardi).

[Fols. 437 and 438-438v are noted as “blank” in the inventory of the ACV and fols. 437-438v are not included in the digital images on FamilySearch.org, but there is also a notation in the same inventory: “Au folio 437 verso, se trouve un dessin du notaire portant la mention: ‘Egrege Morsier Imago’ ”.]

439 Pampignie, Coctens, et Cabane supra Veyronum

Johannes Auberti alias Gronsard de Pampignie, 12 mar 1526, previously recognized by Petrus Tardinat (clear, not Cardinat, but see the next item, where the text clearly shows Tardivat) (Berardi), and sold to the said Johannes Auberti for the price of 12 livres, recorded by Discretus Stephanus Cortesii notarius publicus de Estuey 16 dec 1506.

[Fols. 442-443v are noted as missing.]

444 Petrus Tardinat (but in the text clearly, and as far as we know, uniquely, Tardivat) de Pampigniez, 12 mar 1526, previously recognized by Franciscus Mosceys (or Mosteys?) (Berardi).

448 Petrus de Fontanna alias Chinaudi ? et Jaquema eius uxor filia quondam Francisci Mosceys ? acque Petrus Mosceys ? , 12 mar 1526, but several pages are missing (fols. 449-451v), so most of the information has been lost. Witnesses (fol. 452v) include Venerabilis vir Dominus Franciscus Fonjalleti cappellanus, curatus de Brutignier, in whose house (formerly the house of Nobilis Johannes Marchiandi de Cossonay) in Aubonne the document was signed.

[Fols. 449-451v are noted as missing.]

453v Petrus filius quondam Roleti Davidis de Cabanis supra Veronum notarius necnon Colletus Davidis eiusdem Petri frater, 26 may 1528, previously recognized by Petrus Mosteys (or Mosceys, the script is ambiguous, but in this instance more likely Mosteys) de Coctens (Berardi).

This reconnaissance ends before any of the properties are described, so the volume is incomplete and could have contained more reconnaissances.

[Fols. 455-458v are noted as missing, possibly evidenced by remnants of folios that were torn out.]

END.
