

ACV Fh 103 Confratria Sancti Spiritus de Albona, extracts of various donations, sales, and bequests.

Abstracts prepared by John W. McCoy (RealMac@aol.com) © 2016.

The inventory of the ACV indicates this volume dates from 1406-1407. That statement is certainly incorrect. While the first reconnaissance is dated in 1406, the rest of the dates are diverse, at least as late as 1431. From the details of the text, it is clear that this volume contains copies of various instruments that were in possession of the commissaire, possibly Jaquetus Gos, who signed a notation dated 17 apr 1431 at the bottom of fol. 26v, and whose handwriting and spelling in this notation are very similar to those found in the main text. There are also notations added much later, some signed by Petrus Gos. It seems likely that the main text was compiled by Jaquetus Gos, and that (his son?) Petrus Gos later had custody of it. This volume was previously known as N^o 47 (written on the cover), and later as 3 (in ink on a white paper label pasted onto the cover).
