There is no title or introductory material. The first folio begins a reconnaissance for Berthetus Folli de Alamand, naming the seigneur as Dominus Henricus dominus Menthone miles, causam habens Nobilis et Potentis viri Anthonii condomini Albone et Domini Johannis condomini Albone quondam eius patris. The script is bright and clear, even though the tops of the pages have suffered some damage from moisture.

The date and circumstances of the terrier as given in the inventory of the ACV, 1419, turn out to be misleading. 1419 is the date written at the top of the first reconnaissance, but upon further inspection, the text turns out to be a copy. Specifically, at the bottom of fol. 3, the main reconnaissance was “Actum apud Alamant retro domum Amareti et Nycodi de Villa fratrum, presentibus Perrodo Mermerii de Alamant et Petro de Begio antenato filio Roletto de Begio Gebennensis diocesis, testibus ad premissa vocatis et rogatis, meque Roletto Fine de Ruppe Gebennensis diocesis clerico imperiali auctoritate notario publico juratoque curie prefati domini nostri Sabaudie ducis qui rogatus presens publicum instrumentum recepti ipsumque aliis arduis occupatus negociis scribi grossari et in hanc publicam foram redigi feci per Petrum Barberii de Burnigio ? clericum notarium publicum ex commissione michi facta per prelibatum dominum nostrum Sabaudie ducem in in eo me subscribens signum meum michi solum apposuerit in premissorum testimonium, RF. Then, in a different hand, Datum pro copia ut infra, with signatures and paraphes of St. Leonardo and Girardu de Leaval. In other words, a reconnaissance recorded in 1419 by Roletus Fine and then rendered in its final form by Petrus Barberii has been copied into the present terrier by a new set of commissaires.

The same procedure, more or less, is continued through the volume, and at the end, we find the subscriptions of the two commissaires Johannes de Sancto Leonardo and Girardus de Leaval, along with that of the copyist, Matheus de Reynarderia. It is a great rarity to find the name of the copist, let alone acknowledgement by the commissaires of his specific role.
