This little volume contains an assortment of records relating to rights and titles of the city and the hospital, including a number of grants of citizenship (bourgeoisie). Jaquetus and Petrus Gos signed many of these acts, but there are signatures of a number of other notaries as well. There are brief captions in the margins in a much later hand, but the names of the principals are generally found only by a close reading of the text, some of which seems quite obscure. The last several folios are devoted to prayers and invocations intended to prevent tempests, drive out demons, etc., apparently attributed to, or contributed by, Franciscus Dempsterii capellanus alias Bonijohannis de Nyviduno, vicarius Landeroni, no date listed.

Inside the front cover: a list of fines (banna, apparently for being late on debts ?) for the year 1438. Names include Stephanus Marchiandi, Franciscus Bassini, Johannes Mistralis domicellus, Johannes Mistraleti, Johnannes de Costel, Mermetus Reneverii domicellus, Petrus Garilliat.
