This terrier has been digitized on www.familysearch.org: Image Group 101664019

The text is neatly executed but in some places faded. While the inventory of the ACV indicates it concerns only Aubonne, Le Marteray (in the commune of Féchy), and Montherod, the reconnaissants actually came from many other places, such as Ballens. For the latter, we were pleased to discover a reconnaissance by representatives of the Mayor family, explaining its connections to the Cigoen family in 1496, which had previously been inferred only from partial and contradictory accounts from one or two generations later.

The volume has been designated, at various and unknown times in its long history, as No. 369, No. 33, and No. 2. Whether any of these designations will be helpful in identifying citations found in the margins of other terriers is unknown.

1 Introductory material
