The repertorium includes entries for this volume, fols. 1-302v, followed by entries for its continuation, the second volume, Fn 308, which contains fols. 303-643v. Many, but not all of the documents summarized in this volume exist in the Archives Communales de Moudon (cited below as AC Moudon), which also has other documents pertaining to the hospital that seem not to be found in ACV 307-310.

The entire series of volumes, Fn 307-310, needs to be analyzed in detail. The information presented here is a digest of the repertorium (part of which was reconstructed by the ACV), and transcripts and paraphrases of selected items. A rough count shows at least 1,005 items were copied or extracted into these four volumes, plus 3 items that are now incomplete due to lost pages. For the future, it would be useful to compare these volumes with the collection of documents in the inventory of the AC Moudon.

The extracts below are intended as a finding aid, and may be incomplete in various respects. The script is not always as legible or as well organized as we might wish, although these volumes are relatively clear by 15th Century standards. Errors in our transcripts are possible, and a number of obvious errors in the text of these volumes (errors of the copyist) were also discovered. In some cases, the latter errors could be corrected based on additional clues found within these volumes, or from the descriptions of the original documents that still exist in the AC Moudon.

A great number of these items concern “sales” (vendiciones), but at that period, a “sale” is more likely to be what we would consider today a “secured loan” : The “seller” offers an annual cense, in effect a payment of interest, in return for a loan from the “buyer”, generally with the provision that the “seller” can buy back (and thus extinguish) the obligation to pay the annual cense, by paying the “buyer” the original amount of the loan (this is the right of “reempcio” of “rehempcio”, and later, in French, “réachat”). Sale of existing loans occurred as well. The hospital, like most other “charitable” institutions and a number of families having the means to do so, functioned as a banker, lending money to individuals and other institutions, and treating the annual interest payments as its working income. These loans were secured against specific properties held by the “sellers” (i.e., the borrowers), or by pledging all of their assets, or by naming one or more individuals who promised to act as securities and who were therefore liable in the event that payments were not made as required in the contract.

Notices that are today usually known as “clausules de testament” are also numerous. When an individual recorded a testament, the notary would also prepare a separate notice, whose date was apparently that of the testament itself, and in the name of the testator (i.e., expressed in the first person), to be sent to each institution that was named as a beneficiary in the testament. In a few cases, the testament itself has also been preserved separately. While this seems to be the only logical way to explain the documents that now exist, the assumption that the date of the “clausule” must be the date of the testament itself might be questioned. The fact that almost all of these notices start with “Ego, (name of the testator), in my testament...” strongly suggests at least that the testator was still alive when the “clausules” were prepared.

1 Bulle papale approuvant la fondation de l’hôpital de la BVM de Moudon. Dated at Avignon in the first year of the pontificate of Inocencius, octavo Kalendas Marcii, presumably 22 feb 1353. (Margin : † prima)

1 Act de fondation de l’hôpital. Copia fondacione. Datum per copiam de verbo ad verbum sub sigillo communi ballivie Vuaudi per me Perrodum de Cultilia clericum juratum dicte ballivie Vuaudi die Sabbati ante festum Nativitatis Beati Johannis Baptiste 1337, Nos Johannes Dei gracia episcopus Lausanne, notum facimus universis quod nos ad preces et requisicionem Illustrissimi Domini Ludovici de Sabaudie et Domine Ysabelle eius consortis et ad supplicacionem dilectorum nostrorum nobilium et burgensium ac tocus communitatis de Melduni, de voluntate et consensu Domini Johannis de Germanyer capellani nostri vicarii perpetui parrochialis ecclesie de Melduno, pro nobis et successoribus nostris perpetuo concessimus eisdem gracie ut ipsi infra hospitalis Beate Marie Virginis dicte ville possuit edificare et erigere altare et capellam ydoneam cum campana..., in quorum omnium rebus et testimonium, Nos dictus episcopus pro nobis et ad requisicionem dicti vicarii perpetui de Melduno sigillum nostrum presentibus licteris duximus apponendum ... (Margin : † secunda)

(Fols. 2-2v are lost. From the text at the bottom of fol. 1v, the “act de fondation” should have ended after only a few additional lines at the top of fol. 2. From the marginal sequence numbers, it appears items † iii and most of † iiii have been lost.)

3 ... continuation, autorisation donnée par l’évêque de Lausanne à la fondation d’une chapelle dans l’hôpital, datum Lausanne 23 jun 1327. (This is presumably the end of the item † iiii.)

3 Nos Ludovicus de Sabaudia dominus Vuaudi, notum facimus universis quod nos specta neccessitate hospitalis nostri pauperum Beate Marie de Melduno et pro remedio anime nostre et predecessorum nosterum et ad requisicionem dilecte communitatis nostre de Melduno nobilium et burgensium pro nobis heredibus ac successoribus nostris et predecessorum nostrum, damus et concedimus imperpetuum dicto hospitali usum suum et foyagium in una parte nemoris nostri dou Deveyn in castro Melduni, scilicet a Magna Via de Balma tendente a Melduno versus Rotam inferius, usque ad Broyam et campos inferiori, in omnibus arboribus exceptis quercubus, tamen de ipsis quercubus possunt accipere quantum necce fuerint ad domificandum pro dicto hospitali in hunc modum quod ipsi non possunt aliquid de dicto nemori dare nec vendere. In cuius rei testimonium sigillum nostrum presentibus licteris duximus apponendum, datum Meduni ?

4v Donation par Louis de Savoie baron de Vaud en faveur de Perrod de Châtel fils de feu Jordan Provençal des biens provenant de feu Jean de Popia bourgeois de Moudon (and then from his late son Joffredus de Popia – and these “biens” had been declared “commissas et eschetas pluribus et diversis causis”, implying either unpaid debts, an absence of heirs, or some other circumstance that would occasion the confiscation of these properties from Joffredus de Popia or from his estate ; note that Agneleta de Gillarens, widow of Joffredus de Popia, next married Perrodus de Chastel, the recipient in this donation, and there seems to be no indication that she had children by either of her husbands), et de huiusmodi nos requisierint et nobis humilliter supplicaverint Nobiles viri Dominus Anthonius de Vuilliens miles et Anthonius Cornuti de Vuilliens domicellus... , datum vicesima die mensis Januarii apud Rotundomontem anno domini millesimo quatercentesimo tercentesimo septimo, no notary, witnesses, or other functionaries named. (Margin : † vii) (This is one of the very few records that have come to our attention where the two Anthonii de Vuilliens appear together ! Unfortunately, the document does not seem to exist either in the ACV or in the AC Moudon. Further, no other persons or facts are mentioned that would help to clarify the date. There are several possible interpretations : If quatercentesimo is redundant and should have been lined out, the year becomes 1307, within the reign of Louis II de Savoie, but possibly not within the dates of the other persons named. If quatercentesimo tercentesimo is an extremely careless error for tercentesimo tricesimo, the year becomes 1337, entirely plausible. If quatercentesimo tercentesimo should have been tercentesimo quadragesimo, the year becomes 1347, but we have come to believe that Anthonius de Vuilliens the elder had already died by 1342, see below, fol. 186. Joffredus de Popia seems still to have been alive in 1335, see below, fol. 74, and dead by 1339, fol. 221, so the correct date would seem to be after 1335. It is also possible that the date is written incorrectly (as shown in Fn 307) in the original, in which case the document could easily be hiding in the inventories of either archive without a date and possibly also without a description.)

5 Donation par Amédée de Savoie en faveur de l'hôpital de Moudon d'une cense annuelle de 60 livres, approving donation by the late Petrus de Castello, 05 dec 1363. (ACV reconstructed repertorium says in error that the donor was Louis de Savoie, but he died in 1349 !) (Margin : † viii)

6v Reconnaissance en faveur de Amédée de Savoie par le recteur de l'hôpital de Moudon Vuilliermus dictus Magdellen, 12 dec 1343 (indiction 1). (There is no sequence number in the margin. This item may have been considered part of, or an attachment to, the preceding item. However, see below, fol. 46 (A xxx), where another copy of apparently the same instrument is found, but there dated 13 dec 1367, thus apparently (but not quite) resolving a number of discrepancies relating to the present item.)

The items eumerated on fol. 6v are :

Unam domum sitam ante dictum hospitalis juxta aquam Merone et domum Roleti Bestiant quondam a parte Broye, cense 6 deniers ("pro census" ; all the censes are so labeled on fol. 6v, the word redditus is not used).

Ex legato facto dicto hospitali per Roletum de Sancto Mario et Perrissonam eius uxorem, unam domum juxta domum que quondam fuit Martini de Raisia [ex una parte,] et domum Mermeti Borgonion ex altera, cense 6 deniers.

Ex legato per Girardum nepotem Rodulphis de Fruencia ?, quondam domum situm in carreria Bastie a parte boree, juxta domum Boverii Milliet a parte anteriori, et aquam Broye, cense 8 deniers.

Ex legato sibi facto per Brisetam Pichoda et eius filium, subtus Burgum, unam ochiam juxta ochiam heredum Jaqueti Pictet et cultile Nicoleti de Vuillienjauz, cense 2 deniers obole.

Ex legato per Nicolaum de Grueria quondam, circa quatuor falcatas prati sitas eis Mares (no more text on fol. 6v.)

(There is a folio bound between fols. 6v and 16 at this point, originally unnumbered, now numbered in modern pencil VII, which was evidently believed to be the continuation of fol. 6v during the restoration of this volume in 1937. This folio is blank on the verso. At the bottom of this folio is a notation in pencil, that fols. 7-10v were noted as missing as of 1937, and fol. 11-15v were blank and were suppressed during restoration of the volume at that time. However, we think this folio VII was not originally placed here, as it ends "Actum apud Meldunum inter domum Amedei de Vuilliens quondam presentibus Francisco de Lustita lombardo, et Stephano Faczon ? de Chambrier", but without the rest of the usual closing formalities. As the only Amedeus de Vuilliens known to us died much later, his testament or notice of testament dated 02 oct 1360, this cannot be part of a reconnaissance from 1343. Other references to the rector Vuilliermus Magdalen are known, all of them much later. Among other living persons mentioned in this fragment are Thomas de Glana (died after 1369), the rector Jaquetus de Capella (he held that position roughly 1350-1360), Jaquarius Ysabel, and his son Nicoletus. The item of which this is a fragment should therefore be from no earlier than 1360. The script and paper appear similar to that of Fn 307, although the script is less regular.)

The items enumerated on the folio labeled VII are :

... versus stagnum de Chavanes juxta (juxta is written out in full in most items on “folio VII”, but always abbreviated on fol. 6v) pratum Petri Girardi et pratum Johannis de Grueria ex altera, cense 16 deniers (“redditus”, a word not used on fol. 6v).

Medietatem prati de la Giry ? pro indiviso cum Thoma de Glana subtus pratum Andree Estoper, 3 deniers “redditus”.

Ex empto a dictis Rilet ? de Ermenges, unum pratum situm subtus Ermenges in loco dicto ouz Chanoz juxta pratum Cristinodi de Beuroz (the first letter of this name possibly, altered, and other records suggest it should be Revroz or similar) et pratum Stephani Gunsa ? (Comensa ? – uncertain abbreviation), 6 deniers cense.

Unam domum que fuit quondam Aymonis de Albona sitam juxta domum Jaqueti de Capella rectoris hospitalis ex una parte, et domum Thome de Glana que fuit Rolet de Valanczonaz ex altera, cense 4 deniers. (But on fol. 6v, the reconnaissance of which this “folio VII” is alleged to be a part identifies Vuilliermus dictus Magdalenn as the current rector !)

Ante dictam domum quandam bacham ad vendendum carnes venales prout venduntur in macello, 2 sols redditus.

De bonis que quondam fuerunt Mermete filie Jaquerii ? Pictet eis Roches subtus Burgum Veteris, unam ochiam juxta ochiam Jaquerii Ysabel et Nicoleti eius filii ex altera, 4 deniers redditus.

Subtus Burgum a parte Broye unam ochiam juxta ochiam Brisete Pitita ex empto facto a Petro Geneveiz ? , 3 deniers obole redditus.

Item, dicit et confitetur quod solebat tenere a domino medietatem unius folle et fenius ? bastiatoris sitorum en Vauz in cursus aque Merone juxta Fontem de Vauz, pro quibus solebat solvere domino decem solidos veteres redditus quos nunc solvit a mortalitate cit^{cc} ? pro eo quod dicta folla et bastiatorius ? sunt et fuerent a mortalitate ? cit^{cc} ut dicit. Actum apud Meldunum inter domum Amedei de Vuilliens quondam, presentibus Francisco de Bastita (or Lustita) lombardo et Stephano Faczon ? de Chambrier ? (For what appears to be the actual source of the items on fols. 6v and 7, see below, fol. 46, where there is also continued discussion of the problem of the date.)

(The remainder of the original repertorium is intact and was used to establish the following outline of Fn 307-308, which was then supplemented with information from the text. However, it turns out there are significant errors and omissions in the repertorium. Significant errors have been found both in what remains of the original repertorium and in the text itself.)

16 Cecilliola relictā Cononis Agassy burgensis de Melduno, notice of testament, reconnaissance by her sons Dominus Vuilliermus Agassy sacerdos and Roletus his brother, 19 jun 1347, copia, with signature and parape of Uldriodus Guilly. (Margin : A i. The documents held by the hospital in the 15th Century were organized into bundles or “fardelli”. The first bundle seems to have been reserved for documents from the sovereign or from the ecclesiastical authorities, marked †, described above in Fn 307, fols. 1-6v. The remainder of the documents were in bundles A-N, described in the rest of Fn 307 and continuing through Fn 308-310.)

(This item, identified in the margin as A xxx, is to be compared with the document copied on fol. 6v, above, with its appended folio, originally unnumbered but now identified with a modern pencil notation VII. The version on fol. 6v is dated 12 dec 1343, but that date contradicts information within the document itself. There are a number of other differences, and the part of the document identified as fol. VII may well be a later addition, replacing lost folios 7-10v. The version here on fol. 46 seems more likely to be correct, or likely to be more correct. The version of fol. 6v indicates the date fell in Indiction 1 (the "Indiction" is a repeating cycle of 15 years that began in the 4th Century, and was followed by the Vatican well into the 16th Century). 1343 should have been Indiction 11, while 1367 was correctly Indiction 5 ! If the indiction is not also in error, we might suppose that the date should be in 1363 ! As a method of gaining further insight into the correct date of this reconnaissance, it may be possible to locate the bequests it mentions, somewhere else in Fn 307. Of those : The testament of Roletus de Sancto Mario, fol. 291v (C. xxi, dated 08 oct 1347) ; Bruseta dicta Pitita uxor Stephani Fornerat, fol. 37v (A xxv, dated 20 jul 1343) ; Girardus de Fruencia, Fn 308, fol. 349v (C. lxiii, datum in crastino festi Beati Petri in Cathedra 1348) ; the testament of Nicodus or Nicolaus de Grueria has not yet been located. The 10 documents mentioning the rector Magdalena in the inventory of the AC Moudon are all dated in 1362-1363, with the exception of one dated in 1373 involving a reconnaissance by Olivier Morenchat, but the latter date could conceivably have been misread. We conclude that the most likely date for the present reconnaissance is 13 dec 1363. The rector Magdalena succeeded Girardus Arma in 1362, and was succeeded in 1364 by Petrus de Tremelies, in turn succeeded about 1365 by Perrinus de Pontallia, who remained in this post until at least 1370.)

186 Stephanus de Burgo clericus de Melduno et Anthonia eius uxor, with approval of their children Mermetus, Johannes, Jaquetus, et Beatrix, sale of censes to Roletus Paczo rector hospitalis, many properties on which censes are owed by others, including one, medietatem prati dicti de la Perrery inter eis Juldaraz a parte superiori et a parte boree, et juxta viam dou Mont a parte venti, et super ochias que moventur ab heredibus Domini Anthonii de Vuilliens militis et partitur cum Jaquinodo Cerjat, et nos Ludovicus de Sabaudia dominus Vuaudi ad preces prenominales quorum interest, 22 jan 1342, recorded by Johannodus Arma clericus de Melduno, copia, with signature and paraphe of Uldriodus Guilly. (Margin : B xxxiiii) (This item places the death of the elder Anthonius de Vuilliens prior to the beginning of 1342, or, since this date is probably reckoned in the Style of the Annunciation, the beginning of 1343 by the current calendar, unless the statement about his heirs is a scribal error of some sort. See above, fol. 4v, for the only known occasion where both Anthonius the elder and younger are mentioned in the same document, dated provisionally in 1337 after attempting to correct an obvious scribal error. However, see also above, fol. 133, where Anthonius the elder is definitely alive on 08 may 1343. The puzzle is compounded, apparently, by the observation that all of the other parties to whom censes were owed approved this transaction, except for any representative of the de Vuilliens family. Could the date be in error? We were unable to discover anyone apart from Anthonius de Vuilliens mentioned in this document whose status (living, dead, married, widowed, etc.) in 1342 would be illogical, but it remains possible that the text was still incomplete when the document was signed, and the details of some of the properties were filled in later, including the anachronistic fact that Anthonius had died. With this latter possibility in mind, we give the complete transcript, noting some information that could have been added later to the lost original.)

Complete transcript of the copy preserved in Fn 307:

186 Nos Stephanus de Burgo clericus de Melduno et Anthonia eius uxor, notum facimus universis, quod nos scientes, prudentes, et spontanei non vi non dolo non metu nec aliquo fraudis ingenio ad hoc inducti, previsa utilitate nostra et heredum nostrorum, in hoc plenius evidenti que melius agi non poterat, de laude, consensu, et voluntate Mermeti, Johannis, Jaqueti, et Beatricis liberorum nostrorum pro nobis et nostris heredibus quilibet nostrum insolidum, vendidimus, vendimus, tradimus, et quictamus, et nos titulo et nomine pure, perpetue, et irrevocabilis vendicionis tradidisse confitemur Roletto Paczo rectori hospitalis pauperum Beate Marie Virginis de Melduno presenti, ementi, et stipulanti nomine et ad opus dicti hospitalis irrevocabiliter et imperpetuum in purum et liberum allodium, census nostros infrascriptos quos nobis debent annuatim tempore infrascriptis censerii infrascripti, pro rebus et possessionibus infrascriptis quas a nobis tenebant unacum proprietatibus, rebus, et possessionibus pro quibus debentur, et dominio eorum,

This property lies below the property of the Juglaraz, and above the property held by the heirs of Dominus Anthonius de Vuilliens. As revealed below, however, this parcel is not to be transferred to the hospital until six years from the present, and during that interval the sellers will pay the appropriate cense to the hospital.)

Prout in longum protenditur et in latum, cum suis juribus, fundis, fructibus, pertinenciis, emolumentis, augmentacionibus, et appendenciis universis, videlicet, pro quadraginta duabus libris et decem solidos Lausannensibus bonorum quas et quos a dicto Roletto Paczo integre habuimus et recepimus in bona pecunia numerata nomine et ad causam justi precii vendicionis predictae,

De quibus omnibus et singulis censibus, rebus, et possessionibus predictis et dominio eorum, Nos dicti conjuges venditores nos et heredes nostros devestimus, dictum Roletum Paczo presentem, ementem, et stipulantem nomine et ad opus quibus supra ex causa predicta corporaliter et imperpetuum funditus investiendo de eisdem, nichilque juris rationis accionis dominii vel quasi proprietatis et possessionis de cetero retinentes in eidem, sed sponte eidem Roletto et suis successoribus cedendo ex causa predicta omnes acciones personales et reales et omnia jura que nobis competunt quoquomodo in omnibus et singulis premissis a nobis venditis, mandantes et percipientes per presentes omnibus et singulis censeris predictis et heredibus suis ut ipsi super dictis censibus et dominio eorum dicto Roletto et suis successoribus ad opus dicti hospitalis de cetero respondeant, obediant totaliter et persolvant et non nobis nullo alio super hoc expectato mandato,

187v Et nos Perrodus Pasques, Jacobus Vachon, Johannodus filius Johannis Berchie, Jacobus, Mermetus, Uldricus fratres filii quondam Stephani Juglard, Aubertus de Bolens,

Huguetus filius Johannis Mugner, Johannola Robina, Johanneta relicta Johannis, censerii predicti, tenemur et promictimus pro nobis et nostris heredibus, quibus nostrum pro rata sua, juramentis nostris ad Sancti Dei Evvangelia corporaliter prestitis dictos census solvere et reddere dicto Roletto Paczo et suis successoribus ad opus dicti hospitalis de cetero perpetuo annuatim terminis predictis. (The approvals of those who owe the censes on the various properties being sold are not complete. Missing from this list are Perrodus de Castello and Humbertus Ganyniedat.)

188 Nos vero dicti conjuges venditores tenemur et promictimus quilibet nostrum insolidum pro nobis et nostris heredibus juramentis nostris ad Sancti Dei Evvangelia corporaliter prestitis et sub expressa obligacione omnium bonorum nostrorum mobilium et immobilium presencium et futurorum premissos census et dictam medietate dicti prati dicto Roletto et suis sucessoribus ad opus dicti hospitalis in purum et liberum allodium manutenere, guerentire, et deffendere in omni judicio et extra in pace perpetuo firmiter ab omnibus et contra omnes, et contra predicta vel aliquid de predictis seu presentem licteram per nos aut per alium non facere vel venire in futurum nec cuiquam contravenire volenti consentire facto verbo vel consensu, se pocius eidem Roletto et suis successoribus reddere et restituere integre omnes missiones et expensas quas ipsi dicere voluerunt et sibi credere tenemur suo tantum simplici verbo absque alia probacione, declaracione, et juramento se fecisse vel sustinuisse quoquomodo occasione dicte guerencie non late vel alicuique molestacionis sibi facte pro premissis vel aliquo promissorum.

Et est premissis additum quod dicta medietas dicti prati de la Perrery remanet nobis dictis conjugibus et nostris heredibus ad censum per sex annos proximos et continuos venturos tempore et non ultra, scilicet quolibet anno pro quindecim solidis Lausannensibus bonorum census quos solvere tenemur et promictimus juramentis et obligacione quibus supra dicto Roletto et suis successoribus annuatim in festo Beati Martini Hyemalis durantibus dictis sex annis, quibus elapsa dicta medietas dicti prati de la Perrery debet remanere perpetuo hospitali predicto alique possessiones seu investura non obstante. (Literally, this information was “added” to the present transaction, although at what time is not specified, suggesting that it might not have been part of the original sale. In effect, while all the other items are being sold to the hospital on the date of this transaction, the property at la Perrery is not to be sold until six years later! In view of all the other contingencies that could have arisen for a “future sale”, was it ever appropriate for this parcel to be included here? Consequently, the seemingly anachronistic or at least problematic statement about cense owed to the heirs of Anthonius de Vuilliens, who by other records should still have been alive in 1342, could have arisen if all of the text concerning this property had been added to the original document at a later date, in the form of insertions or marginal notations, well after it was originally prepared and sealed, and if, when the document was copied into Fn 307, the position of the added text relative to the original text, as well as any editorial markings that may have been present, were not preserved in the copy.)

188v Renunciantes in hoc facto scienter excepcione doli mali metus actioni in factum excepcioni dicte perpetue non jurante non habite non recepte speique recepcionis future minoris precii subsidio juri deceptis subvenienti ultra vel circa dimdiam justii precii juri accionis dividende omni juri in favorem mulierum et pro dote ipsarum introducto et omni juri canonici et civili scripto et non scripto per quod premissa possent modo aliquo vel ingenio infringi vel cassari, juri que generalem renunciantes reprobanti nisi precesserit specialis.

Ego vero dictus Mermetus filius dictorum conjugum venditorum sciens et spontaneus pro me et meis heredibus dictos census et medietatem dicti prati de la Perrery cum dominio eorum in purum et liberum allodium teneri dicto hospitali perpetuo laudo et confirmo, Et nos Johannes, Jaquetus, et Beatrix liberi dictorum conjugum venditorum pro nobis et nostris heredibus premissa omnia laudamus perpetuo penitus et confirmamus.

189 In cuius rei testimonium Nos Stephanus, Anthonia conjuges venditores, Mermetus, Johannes, Jaquetus, Beatrix, liberi eorum laudatores, Perrodus Pasques, Jacobus Vachon, Johannodus filius Johannis Berchie, Jacobus, Mermetus, Uldricus, fratres filii Stephani Juglard, Aubertus de Bolens, Huguetus filius Johannis Mugner, Johannola Robina, Johanneta relicta Johannis Porchet, censerii predicti, sigillum commune ballivie Vuaudi rogavimus et fecimus apponi huic scripto, Et Nos Ludovicus de Sabaudia dominus Vuaudi ad preces prenominatorum quorum interest nobis oblatas per Johannodum Arma clericum de Melduno juratum dicte ballivie nostre Vuaudi, cui super hoc plenius fidem adhibemus dictum sigillum nostrum dicte ballivie hiis licteris duximus apponendum.
