The repertorium for this volume is found in Fn 307. Fn 308 is the continuation of Fn 307. Fn 307 contains fols. 1-302v, and the second volume, Fn 308, begins with fol. 303. In the same way, Fn 309 and 310 continue the series, with the repertorium for these two volumes in Fn 309, and the foliation continuing from Fn 309 into Fn 310. This plan would be easy to navigate, except that the ACV supplied its own folio numbers for the continuation volumes Fn 308 and Fn 310. Because of the way the indexes are structured, and because of some internal references to folio numbers, we use the original foliation here. Many, but not all of the documents summarized in this volume exist in the Archives Communales de Moudon (cited as AC Moudon), which also has other documents pertaining to the hospital that seem not to be found in Fn 307-310.

The documents that were copied or extracted in Fn 307-310 were organized into bundles of “fardelli” of 100. Fn 307 contains the transcripts of bundles A, B, and part of C. Fn 308 continues with the remainder of bundle C, followed by D, E, and part of F.

The entire series of volumes, Fn 307-310, needs to be analyzed in detail. The information presented here is a digest of the repertorium, and transcripts and paraphrases of selected items.

303 (First folio of Fn 308.) Lined out continuation of document concerning Anthonius Brenles, the first page of which is in Fn 307 on fol. 302v, the last page of that volume, where it is also lined out. The lined out text continues in Fn 308 to the bottom of fol. 304, then the same document begins again at fol. 304v.

304v Anthonius Brenles clericus de Melduno, sale of cense to Perronetus de Laya burgensis de Melduno, rector of the hospital, assigned on his house in Rosto Borgello Melduni, 23 feb 1404, recorded by Uldriodus Ysabel, pro copia, with signature and paraphe of Uldriodus Guilly.

(Margin : C. xxxix) (This item presents a problem, in that the notice of testament of Anthonius de Vuilliens miles, who could be taken to be this one and not Anthonius the younger, is dated, according to several different records, in 1356, the same year his widow Elynoda is first mentioned. Is the date 20 mar 1350 correct ? The document copied here still exists, Archives Communales de Moudon, M 58, 385, "Rolet, ffeu Jaquet Pinvit, tient de Jaquet de Chapelle, recteur de l'hôpital de la Vierge-Marie, 2

poses de terre et pré rière Moudon, entre la terre de Perrod de Fernay et celle des hoirs de sire Antoine de Willyens, chevalier, l'aîné etc. sous la maison dudit Rolet, sous la cense de 2 coupes de messel”, with the date 20 mar 1350. (Comments on the AC Moudon's description of the original of this item : The name of the family in Fn 308 is clearly written Molliar, not Malliar. The reference to Chavanes-sur-Moudon may be incorrect, as there seems to be in Fn 307-310, in addition to the village of Cabanis or Chavanes supra Meldunum, a separate place called Cabana Mistralis Supra Meldunum, whose lieu-dits appear to differ. The name shown in the AC Moudon inventory as Uldric Picz is rendered here as Uldricus Pitet – in other words, the abbreviated name written as pic3 or pit3 was correctly resolved by the copyist in Fn 308 as Pitet, but was missed by the AC Moudon. The passage for Michel ffeu Reynier de Reyvro is written in Fn 308 as Michael filius quondam Meynerii (not Reynier or similar) de Reyuro.)

(Margin : E ix) (It is unusual to find a date based on the Kalends so late in the 14th Century. Is it possible the true date was 1259 instead ? However, the original document that was copied into Fn 308 still exists in the AC Moudon, M 58, 488, “Le prévôt du chapitre de Lausanne, ayant repris par crie d’échute des biens de feu Girod Bouczan, de Villar Tiercelin (Tieselín) et J Advenat, leurs taillables décédés sans héritiers, les donnent à cense pour 20 ans à Rolet de Villar-Tiercelin, sous la cense de 45 sous, et réservées les censes dues sur ces tènements aux prébendiers de Dommartin; L’entrage est de 40 sous; Le tènement dudit feu Girod comprend : au Mottay : 3 seiteurs de pré jouxte le pré ès Marchisans et celui de P Mistrolis; ès Luys : 2 seiteurs de pré et une pose de terre entre le pré de P Leschaul et celui de Rodolphe Johannet; en la Corselanna : 4 seiteurs de pré et 4 poses de terre entre le pré aux Advenat et le pré de la veuve de Conon Vitilliet; en la Fuily; en la Courtaraye; au village même 2 oches dans lesquelles se trouvent 2 maisons; un chesal devant le four dudit Girod et un petit jardin derrière; au Perer Marcel; ès Nasat, au Bruyl : en tout 11 seiteurs de pré, 13 poses de terre, trois oches, un chesal, un petit jardin et une petite planche, sur quoi il y a une cense de 15 deniers à la St-Martin et d’un quarteron de mil à la St-

Further, the reconnaissance by Rolet de Villars-Tiercelin resulting from the above accensation, dated 04 apr 1359, is found in the ACV, C Va 1044, in the collection of the documents from the Chapitre de Lausanne, “Rolet de Villars-Tiercelin, reconnaît que le Chapitre de Lausanne lui a concédé pour l'espace de 20 ans, les tènements de Girod dit Baussan [Bouczan], de Villars-Tiercelin, et de Jean dit Adevnat [error in the inventory of the ACV : should be Advenat !], feu hommes taillables dudit Chapitre, à charge de 25 sols de cens annuel et moyennant 40 sols reçus à titre d'entrage; de plus, il est dû annuellement pour ces biens aux prébendiers de Dommartin 3 quarterons de mêlé, et 15 deniers”.
